— The gold - en morn - ing is fast ap - proach - ing; Je - sus — The gos - pel sum - mons will soon be car - ried To the There those loved ones who have long been part - ed, Will all soon will come To take His faith - ful and hap - py chil - dren na - tions round; The bridegroom then will cease to tar - ry meet that day; The tears of those who are bro - ken - heart - ed
To their prom - ised home.
And the trum - pet sound. O, we see the gleams of the gold - en Will be wiped a - way. morn - ing Pierc - ing through this night of gloom! O, we see the gleams of the gold - en morn - ing That will burst the
