Let the heav-en light shine on me, — Let the heav-en light shine on me, —

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the staffs.

For low is the way to the up-per bright world, Let the heav-en light shine on me.

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The lyrics are written below the staffs.

1. Oh, broth-er, you must bow so low, — Oh, broth-er, you must bow so low —

The third system of musical notation. It features a first ending marked with '1.' and a 'Mm' (mezzo-mor) marking. The melody and bass line are shown. The lyrics are written below the staffs.

Repeat 1st Chorus

For low is the way to the up-per bright world, Let the heav-en light shine on me.

The fourth system of musical notation. It is labeled 'Repeat 1st Chorus' and shows the continuation of the melody and bass line. The lyrics are written below the staffs.

2. Oh, dea-con, you must bow so low, — Oh, dea-con, you must bow so low,

The fifth system of musical notation. It features a second ending marked with '2.' and a 'Mm' (mezzo-mor) marking. The melody and bass line are shown. The lyrics are written below the staffs.

Repeat 1st Chorus

For low is the way to the up-per bright world, Let the heav-en light shine on me.
