

HENRY de FLUITER

OVER YONDER

H. de F. Arr. © 1993 by Wayne Hooper, 1963

1. Come let us sing of home-land, Down by the crys-tal sea; Won-der-ful land where Je-sus Build-eth a man-sion for me. O-ver yon-der, down by the down

crys-tal sea, O-ver yon-der, There's where I long to be,
by the crys-tal sea, There's where I long to be,

No more sor-row, toil, grief, nor care In the home-land bright and fair,

O-ver, o-ver there. 2. Come go with me to home-land,
come go to home-land,
o-ver there.

Jesus invites you there,
Je-sus in-vites you there; Help spread the in-vi-ta-tion, Tell
Tell

N.B.
↓
Over Yonder (2)

it to men everywhere; men ev - ry - where; O - ver yon - der, down by the crys - tal sea, down by the crys - tal sea,

O - ver yon - der, there's where I long to be, there's where I long to be, No more sor - row, toil, grief, nor care In the home - land bright and fair, O - ver, o - ver

there.
o - ver there.

N. B. If last chord of stanza 2 is not enjoyed, just leave off the 2 accidentals.

Copyright 1918, by Henry de Fluiter