

† O'ER THE DISTANT MOUNTAINS BREAKING

John S. B. Monsell, 1862 VIGOROUS MARCH J. G. C. Storl, 1744, Arr. by Wayne Hooper, 1966

*
 1. O'er the dis - tant moun - tains break - ing Comes the red - dening
 2. Near - er now my soul's sal - va - tion, Spent the night, the
 3. With my lamp well trimmed and burn - ing, Swift to hear and dawn of day; Rise, my soul, from sleep a - wak - ing, Rise, and sing and day at hand; Keep me in my low - ly sta - tion, Watch - ing for Thee slow to roam, Watch - ing for Thy glad re - turn - ing To re - store me watch, and pray; 'Tis thy Sav - iour, 'tis thy Sav - iour, On His till I stand, O my Sav - iour, O my Sav - iour, In Thy to my home; Come, my Sav - iour, come, my Sav - iour, Thou hast bright re - turn - ing way.
 bright, Thy pro - mised land.
 prom - ised: quick - ly come!

THE HYMNAL. EDEN PUBLISHING HOUSE, Saint Louis, Mo.
 Copyright Pending, 1966, by Wayne Hooper