Safe in the fold we've gathered the sheep, Safe from the wea-ry and worn, His heart knew no rest, Till He might storms on the mountain steep; "But," said the Shepherd, as He hold it up - on His breast; So in the darkness went the count - ed them o'er, "Some one is miss-ing, there Shep-herd a - lone, But ere the morn-ing He should be one more." Some one is miss-ing, Someone is brought back His own. Missing..... Missing.....

missing, Out on the mountains dark and cold, who will go find him? With love's bands bind him? Who'll bring him back to the shel-ter of the fold?
