* She's a lit-tle old fashioned, That sweet mother of mine,
She's a lit-tle old fashioned, That sweet mother of mine,
She's a lit-tle old fashioned, She stays closely at home,

There are man-y whose beauty Will my moth - er's out-shine;
Tho' even her plainness Now my heart-strings en-twine;
So calm, and con-tent-ed, Al - tho oth - ers may roam;

She's a lit-tle old fashioned As I plain-ly can see But she Other hands may be whit-er But none other so dear For they
And in tender young childhood Twas a shel-ter for me And she
