

THE BEST OF THE
Cathedrals

ARRANGED BY HAROLD LANE

Best Of The CATHEDRALS

Once again Homeland brings to every male singer, whether part-time or full-time, whether a male duet, trio, quartet, or an ensemble from the church choir, a thrilling songbook for you to sing. These songs have been performed by the Cathedral's across the face of America with many of them being hit radio singles that you've heard and loved. These exciting arrangements by Harold Lane will allow you, as well as the choir, to perform these tunes for enjoyment and praise. So, once again, get the guys together, get your songbooks and sing as only the Cathedral's, and you, can sing these songs.

 Begin Narration*

Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone, I'll live in memory's garden, dear, with happy days we've known. In spring, I watch for roses red when fades the lilac blue, And in early fall when brown leaves call, I'll catch a glimpse of you, And should you go first and I remain to finish with the scroll, no lengthening shadows shall creep in, to make this life seem droll; We've known so much of happiness, we've had our cup of joy;

First system of piano accompaniment. The music is written for piano with treble and bass staves. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The system consists of two measures. The first measure has a treble staff with a half note F and a bass staff with a half note B-flat. The second measure has a treble staff with a half note G and a bass staff with a half note F. The chords are: F, Bb/C, Gm/F, F, Ab°, Bbmaj7/G, Gm7, C9, Am7, Abmaj7, Gm7, C7, Gm11, F#7.

But memory is one gift of God that death cannot destroy. Should you go first and I remain for battles to be fought, each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot. I'll see your face, I'll hear your voice, though blindly I may grope. The memory of your helping hand will boil me on with hope. And finally, should you go first and I remain, one thing I'd have you do— walk slowly down that long, long path for soon I'll follow you. And I want to know each step you take that I make walk the same, for some day down that long, long path you'll hear me call your name.

Second system of piano accompaniment. The music is written for piano with treble and bass staves. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The system consists of two measures. The first measure has a treble staff with a half note F and a bass staff with a half note B-flat. The second measure has a treble staff with a half note G and a bass staff with a half note F. The Lamb Has Prevailed

Words and Music by
Phil & Carolyn Cross

The musical score is written for piano and three voices. The piano part consists of a right-hand melody and a left-hand accompaniment. The vocal parts are arranged in three staves, each with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The score includes three systems of music. The first system has a key signature change from three flats to two flats (B-flat, E-flat). The second system has a key signature change from two flats to one flat (B-flat, E-flat). The third system has a key signature change from one flat to no flats (C major). The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with some words underlined. The piano part includes various musical notations such as chords, arpeggios, and rests.
