

A Place in His Kingdom

195

"Blessed is the man who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God." (Luke 14:15)

1. Up to God's king-dom may He take me, To see His glo-rious pro-mised land,
2. Saints that may see that Ho-ly Ci-ty, Pon-der on the e-ter-nal rest,
3. On-ward I march, and will not tar-ry, Fear-less in tri-umph o-ver death,

Those who dwell there are ever hap-py, They re-joice and pass the day in song;
If I my all will give in ser-vice, I may en-ter in that peace so bless'd;
Je-sus my Lord is ev-er with me, In His peace He ev-er doth me bless;

Hark, the song of the saints in His kingdom, Praising God for His triumph o'er sin,
Oh, the joy-ful ones saved thro' His mercy, O the ci-ty of God shin-ing bright,
Soon I'll stand on the bright glorious shore line, Hear me-lo-di-ous songs of delight,

REF: If you hope for a place in His king-dom, Hope to sing, with His saints, songs of praise;

D.S. for Refrain
Gold-en harps before Him they are play-ing, As they in-to His peace en-ter in.
Soon that ci-ty I'll see bright-ly gleaming, And the saints in the grace of the Lord.
In that e-ter-nal place of re-joic-ing, I will live in God's glo-ri-ous light.

Keep His Word, ev-er loy-al and fear-less, And your foot-steps will lead to His grace.
