(I Corinthians 11:26)

"To His Glory..."

As we gather at His table In remembrance of what He's done, Let us worship the Lamb of Calvary, God's only Son.

Jesus, Precious Savior, Thank You for taking my place;

Thank You for giving Your life for me, For Your mercy, for Your love, for Your grace.

to others each day that you live;
Be a blessing to God in ways that you give;

I'll be a blessing;
Be a

Nothing less
my King,
I'll be a blessing,

I Am Sealed - I Am Healed

(Romans 11:17-18)

Spiritual Song

"To His Glory..."

When we receive the Savior,
We receive the Healer; In Him is the power to make us whole
In spirit, in body, in soul.

Jesus, You're the Vine; All that flows in You is Divine.
As a branch abiding, All that flows in You is mine; All that flows in You is mine.
Praise God, I'm grafted in; I am sealed. Praise God, I'm grafted in; I am healed.

Un-til the days You've ordained for me have run their course, I am sealed; I am healed.

Before God Spoke the Earth into Position

(Ephesians 1:4)

Spiritual Song

"To His Glory..."

1. Before God spoke the earth into position, Before He placed the stars in skies above, He planned for our redemption, He planned for Calvary’s love.

2. Before the dawn’s first dew refreshed the meadow, Before He heard the cooing of the dove, It’s His amazing mercy that I am singing of.

3. Before God put the man into the garden, Before He took the woman from his side, Or-dained from the beginning that He’d be crucified.

Life to common dust, Deem the hearts of man; Blood—Golgotha’s price, For God, Son of God, the great "I AM."

When man divides the primary colors into secondary colors, he ends up with only six. When God divides the primary colors, He ends up with seven -- the number of perfection. (His ways are not our ways.) The color man always misses is indigo, that rare color of royalty. What Noah saw, in full majestic splendor high on Mount Ararat, was the complete circle of the rainbow. This unending circle has been used ever since to represent the unbroken commitment of a covenant relationship. The Bible tells us that a special emerald-like rainbow encircles God's throne. (Rev. 4:3)

When God's perspective, it forms a magnificent complete circle. From our low vantage point on earth we simply are not positioned to see the rainbow in all its incredible beauty. You have to get above the horizon to see its completeness. Airline pilots, balloonists, mountain climbers, and astronauts continue to be fascinated by this rare, but powerful spectacle. The first astronauts were mesmerized by the sight. They reported that, from space, rainbows look like "halos, hovering over earth" (NASA)
